

I am absolutely opposed to the weakening the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. What is it that makes these idiots think that when I put my name on a Do Not Call List I really do want them to call me? What part of do not call me do they not understand?